

Find It, Fix It Community Project Grants

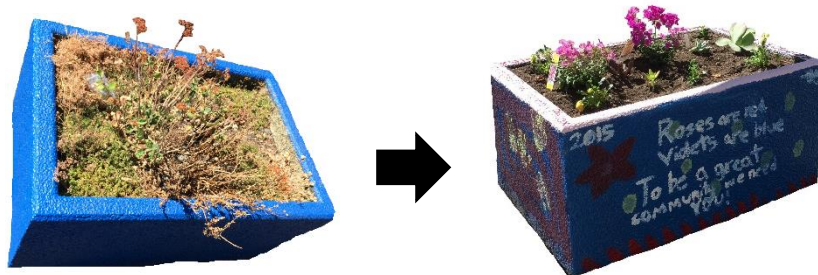

Frequently Asked Questions

What are the Find It, Fix It Community Walks?

Since 2014, Mayor Ed Murray has led the Find It, Fix It Community Walks to help improve Seattle neighborhoods one block at a time. On the walks, community members have the opportunity to speak about neighborhood needs directly with Mayor Murray and other City officials. After the Community Walk, the City and community work together to fix the problems addressed on the walk.

2016 Find It, Fix It Neighborhoods:

- Aurora Licton Urban Village – Tuesday, May 31
- Belltown – Late June
- Roxhill – July
- Judkins Park – August
- Crown Hill – September
- Georgetown – October
- Wallingford – November

In 2015, Hillman City community members transformed several flower boxes on a busy public walkway with funding from a Find It, Fix It Community Project Grant.

What is a Find It, Fix It Community Project Grant?

If you are a community member in a 2016 Find It, Fix It neighborhood, you can apply for up to $5,000.00 to complete a project that improves the safety or appearance of your neighborhood.

How do I get an application for a Community Project Grant?

You will find grant applications online at www.seattle.gov/finditfixit. The application for each neighborhood will be open about one week before and one week after the Find It, Fix It Community Walk in your neighborhood. If you would like a paper copy sent to your home, contact Laura Jenkins at laura.jenkins@seattle.gov or 206.233.5166.

Applications are available in English, Spanish, Somali, Cantonese, Vietnamese, Amharic, and Tagalog.

How will I pay for a Find It, Fix It Community Project?

The City of Seattle cannot give you money in advance for your project. This means that you will need to fund the project independently, or partner with an organization that can help you pay for the initial expenses. After you buy everything you need for your project, the City of Seattle will reimburse you within 2 weeks. If you can't pay for your project up front, don't worry. Contact Laura Jenkins at laura.jenkins@seattle.gov or 206.233.5166 to learn about other options.

Can I go on the Find It, Fix It Community Walk if I don't apply for a Community Project Grant?

Yes! We also encourage you to invite your friends, family, and neighbors to join the Community Walk.

Who do I contact if I have questions or want more information?

If you have additional questions, please contact Laura Jenkins at 206.233.5166. When you call, please state the language you speak and an interpreter will be brought on the line within a few minutes.
